

Schnauzer Walk
20th Year Anniversary
1997  2017

July 29, 2017

Clackamette Park

1955 Clackamette Dr. Oregon City, OR

9:30 am Registration Begins, pre-entries will be posted, please find your name and associated number to get your name tag and T-shirt, sign up for contests and get yourself settled in for a fun day with Schnauzers plentiful.

PORTLAND MINIATURE SCHNAUZER CLUB
www.pmsc2.org

Planned Events

Grooming Demonstration
10:30 to Noon

We will have someone grooming dogs through out the morning. Last year there was a lot of interest in this activity, so we hope to be able to have everyone see and ask questions.

Schnauzer
Information

We will also have an table with information you can pick up. Also talk with breeders and other schnauzer people.

Raffle

You may find just that Schnauzer or dog item you've been looking for at the raffle.

Barn Hunt

The purpose of Barn Hunt is to demonstrate a dogs vermin hunting ability in finding and marking rats in a barn-like setting, using straw/hay bales to introduce climbing and tunneling obstacles in the dogs path.

Confidence Course, Costume and Talent contests. We will also have leash training!

Directions

Clackamette Park is located at the confluence of the Willamette and Clackamas rivers in Oregon City, with easy access from I-205 and 99E. From I-205, take Exit 9 McLoughlin Boulevard/OR-99E. At the end of the off ramp, turn right onto McLoughlin. Take Dunes Drive 0.1 mile to Clackamette Drive and turn right. Take Clackamette past McDonald's till you find parking and lots of Miniature Schnauzers!

www.pmsc2.org/walk.htm